New children's nursery due to open at Holcroft Court

After a break of two years without a nursery a new childcare provider is to open this September at Holcroft Court in Fitzrovia, writes Linus Rees.

The long-standing children's nursery at Carburton Street closed in 2021 and the purpose-built site in the centre of the Westminster Council owned residential estate in Fitzrovia West has remained empty ever since.

Now under new management, Little Raccoons Day Nursery will provide places for up to 40 children aged from three months to five years.

It is due to open on Monday 25 September with opportunities to view the nursery available from Monday 18 September.

Both funded and private nursery care is available. They offer three- and four-year-olds 15 or 30 funded hours throughout the year. Government funded places are subject to availability.

The nursery will be open from 7.30am to 6.30pm, 51 weeks of the year. Closed for the week that Christmas falls on and all bank holidays.

"We are a small group of family-run nurseries, our first nursery opened in 2011. At Little Raccoons, we aim to provide a fun, warm and welcoming environment in which children are motivated and eager to learn," says Bhama Rudrakumar, director of Little Raccoons Day Nursery.

Oxford Street plan will drive more traffic through Fitzrovia

Westminster Council's new plan for Oxford Street will likely drive more motor traffic into Fitzrovia, writes Linus Rees.

The eastern end of Oxford Street between Great Portland Street and Tottenham Court Road is currently open to all traffic in both directions, 24 hours a day and seven days a week.

Now a bus, taxi and cycle only restriction from 7am to 7pm every day of the week between Rathbone Place and Tottenham Court Road is planned.

This will remove the eastern end of Oxford Street as a through route and therefore push more motor traffic onto the parallel routes to the north.

Westminster Council is proposing to make Mortimer Street two-way for its entire length and so providing drivers with a continuous eastbound and westbound route along Goodge Street in the east and Wigmore Street in Marylebone to the west.

Since there will be more motor traffic heading east and west along the Wigmore-Mortimer-Goodge carriageway it is likely to push more motor traffic onto other Fitzrovia streets.

Celebrating 50 years of a community newspaper in Fitzrovia

Fitzrovia has had its own community newspaper for 50 years. That has to be a cause for celebration. So now we have published a book reflecting on the past five decades of local news, write Nick Bailey, Sue Blundell, and Linus Rees.

Over the years the name of this publication has changed, and it has been a bit stop-start at times as its fortunes have ebbed and flowed. But its style and reportage have remained remarkably consistent.

It began as Tower but later became Fitzrovia Neighbourhood News, and ultimately the mainly online Fitzrovia News.

The selection of stories is inevitably partial and subjective, but hopefully portrays the character of the area as it is, and also reflects on how it has changed over the past half century.

We hope this compilation will jog a few memories amongst our older readers but also inform and entertain those who have moved into the area more recently.

BID ballot delayed

A business services group in Fitzrovia has done a hasty about-turn on holding a ballot to create a business improvement district (BID) in Fitzrovia West, mere weeks after being given the go-ahead by Westminster Council.

On 3 May The Fitzrovia Partnership gained formal permission to hold a ballot of the largest businesses in Fitzrovia West to raise £4.2mn over five years from a levy on the business rates.

It said ballot papers were due to be sent out on Tuesday 13 June, and to be returned by 5pm on Tuesday 11 July.

The West Fitzrovia BID now proposes distributing the ballot papers on Monday 2 October, and the close of ballot as Tuesday 31 October. The results would be published on Wednesday 1 November 2023.
